When submitting a claim to Art Eindhoven mention whether you have already submitted the claim to another insurance company. A correct and truthfully completed claim is of course imperative. They also have no influence on the decision of the insurance company when submitting claims.

Only upon submission of an itemized and signed statement of this form and accompanying photographs (see instructions), the works are insured according to the insurance policy, for theft and damage, during transport in The Netherlands to and from the exhibition below and during the exhibition itself.
